

ALAIN PIETRANCOSTA

Alain Pietrancosta biography

Alain Pietrancosta is Professor of law at the Sorbonne Law School (University of Paris). He earned his Ph.D. from the University of Paris I Panthéon-Sorbonne in 1999 and passed the “aggregation” of law in 2001.

Professor Pietrancosta teaches French and European business, company, financial and securities law. He is the founder and director of the Masters in Financial Law program at the University of Paris I Panthéon-Sorbonne. He also teaches in and heads the joint Masters degree program run by the University of Paris I Panthéon-Sorbonne, the Institute of Political Studies of Paris ("Sciences Po"), Columbia Law School, Cornell University School of Law.

Member of the European Corporate Governance Institute (ECGI), founding member of the Financial Law Research Center of the University of Paris I Panthéon-Sorbonne, director of the Financial Law Association (ADFIN), member of the Asset management commission of the French Financial Market Authority (AMF), head of the scientific committee of the European Association of Banking and Financial Law - Europe, Professorial Fellow of the Faculty of Law of Tilburg, Anton Philips Professor for the year 2008-2009 (Tilburg Law School's Center for Company Law), Professor Pietrancosta is also the founder and director of the new “Revue Trimestrielle de Droit Financier – Corporate Finance and Capital Markets Law Review”.

He is the author of "The Influence of Financial Imperatives and Market Forces on French Corporate Law" (« Le droit des sociétés sous l'effet des impératifs financiers et boursiers »), Thomson-Transactive, 2000, which was awarded a prize by the University of Paris I and by the European Association of Banking and Financial Law (AEDBF).

Professor Pietrancosta has published numerous articles with respect to corporate, financial and securities law (Lamy Droit du financement, Dictionnaires Joly, Bulletins Joly, Jurisclasseur, Revue de droit bancaire et financier, Lexbase etc.). He is also co-author of several books and a frequent participant at international conferences in the fields of corporate, financial and securities law. He regularly consults for law firms and corporate clients and has served as a French law expert in major lawsuits in U.S. federal courts. He is now consultant at Freshfields Bruckhaus Deringer Paris.