

The Ethics of Economic Responsibility

Campus Bozen-Bolzano City Center
21 – 22 November 2024 | Hybrid Event

Room D1.02 (21 November)
Room C4.01 (22 November)

Organised by:

unibz
Fakultät für Wirtschaftswissenschaften
Facoltà di Economia
Faculty of Economics and Management

With support of:

BANCA PER IL TRENTINO-ALTO ADIGE
BANK FÜR TRENTINO-SÜDTIROL
CREDITO COOPERATIVO ITALIANO

—————→	21 NOVEMBER, ROOM D1.02 (German / Italian)
18:00–20:00	Round table: Heinz Peter Hager, Monica Devilli, Thomas Longo, Verena Rauen
—————→	22 NOVEMBER, ROOM C4.01 (English)
08:30–09:45	Welcome & Introduction The ethics of economic responsibility Ralf Lüfter
09:45–10:30	Economic inequality and democratic backsliding. What justice says (or should say) about individual or institutional responsibilities Luigi Caranti
10:30–11:00	Coffee Break
11:00–11:45	Onto-epistemological reflections on the ethics of economic responsibility: Contrasting Aristotelean with Post-Cartesian (i.e. Buddhist) perspectives Matthias Fuchs
11:45–12:30	Socio-economic inequalities between individual and collective responsibilities: a liberal-egalitarian perspective Benedetta Giovanola
14:00–14:45	Hybrid systemic responsibility: a core concept for whistleblower protection Verena Rauen
14:45–15:30	Nietzsche’s “calculating animal as such”: tracing responsibility to the economic constitution of humanity Sören Schuster
15:30–16:00	Coffee Break
16:00–16:45	How to introduce critical and ethical thinking in the education of future economists: a teaching experience Carlos Hoevel
16:45–18:00	Beyond the is and ought – approaching ethics through phenomenological insights Florian Krause