

Material Talks - Kaffeeform

Turning used coffee grounds into durable products?
Sounds great but does this really work? Join us to learn about Kaffeeform's story from hands-on material experiments to becoming a design-driven company.

26.11.
5 PM

BITZ unibz fablab
Rosmini, 9
Bolzano

Julian Nachtigall-Lechner (born 1985 in Berlin, Germany) is a designer and entrepreneur dedicated to creating sustainable material innovations. He studied Interdisciplinary Design at the Free University of Bozen-Bolzano in Italy, graduating with a Bachelor of Arts in 2010.

Kaffeeform is a Berlin-based company transforming recycled coffee grounds and biopolymers into durable, design-driven materials and products. Julian Nachtigall-Lechner a founder and CEO leads the development of award-winning reusable coffee cups and lifestyle products that combine circular design with strong storytelling.

Material Talks is a series of lectures focusing on matter organized by the unibz Material Library in collaboration with BITZ unibz fablab. This edition is kindly supported by the Competence Centre for Sustainability.

MATERIAL CRUSH

unibz Material Library / follow us @material_crush

BITZ
unibz fablab

unibz

Kompetenzzentrum für ökonomische, ökologische und soziale Nachhaltigkeit
Centro di Competenza per la Sostenibilità economica, ambientale e sociale
Competence Centre for Economic, Ecological and Social Sustainability